

The Pyramid Model Framework

- A framework that promotes social-emotional competency in young children
- Provides strategies and supports to providers, families, and administrators to support the social-emotional needs of children
- Can be used across all early childhood settings
- Builds on existing evidence-based practices

To learn more, visit:

<https://youtu.be/MVFwbWZCi3g>
and <https://challengingbehavior.org/>

